Reputation Manager

Reviews Are Too Important To Leave to Chance!

We live an age when one unhappy customer or one disgruntled former employee can adversely impact your reputation with people who know nothing else about you.

The irony is that even if the vast majority of your customers are thrilled with your product or service, they are less likely to leave a review than one who has had a less-than stellar experience. Let's even the odds in your favor!

Think aviation professionals are above petty gossip?

Think again!

Don't Let A One-Star Review

Be the First Or Only Thing a New Prospect Sees!

The best companies are at risk of a negative review.

We developed our Review Manager Program for aviation companies like yours.

Some of the common reasons include mistaken identity, a jealous competitor, a customer having a bad day (and you being the wrong place at the wrong time) an equipment/facility/weather problem outside of your control, or possibly, you - or someone on your team - messed something up.

We're not in retail, it's unlikely that we'll have hundreds or thousands of reviews.

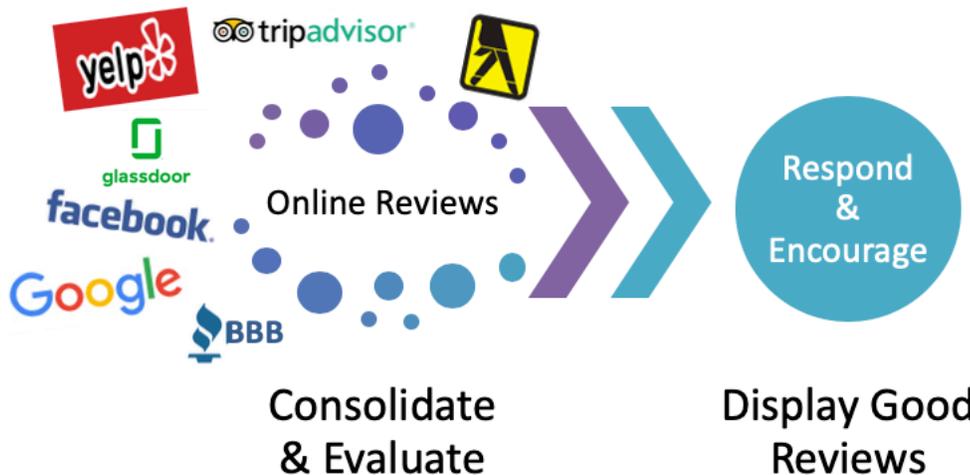

So every one of them affects the average.

It happens! But you shouldn't have to pay for it forever in the form of a negative online review.

This program proactively intercepts negative situations and gives you a chance to rectify the situation BEFORE it ends up on the review sites!
